2020 Citizens Redistricting Commission

APPLICATION & SELECTION PROCESS

Online application period
June 10—August 19, 2019

Initial screening of applications

Qualified and disqualified applicants are notified

Supplemental application filing period for qualified applicants
August 21—October 20, 2019*

Applicant Review Panel (ARP) reviews applicant qualifications and identifies 120 of the most qualified applicants*

ARP schedules and conducts interviews for 120 of the most qualified applicants
February 18—April 20, 2020*

ARP selects 60 of the most qualified applicants
April 21—May 8, 2020*

ARP transmits list of 60 applicants. Legislature exercises up to 24 “strikes”
May 15—June 30, 2020

State Auditor randomly selects the first eight commissioners
No later than July 5, 2020

Following random selection of the first eight commissioners, the State Auditor’s Office provides them with the names of remaining candidates. Those first eight commissioners select the remaining six to establish the 14-member commission.

* Dates subject to change depending on the number of tentatively eligible applications.

shapecaliforniasfuture.auditor.ca.gov
2020 Citizens Redistricting Commission
APPLICATION & SELECTION PROCESS

START

60-day online application period
June 10—August 9, 2019

- Initial screening of applications

Qualified and disqualified applicants are notified

Supplemental application filing period for qualified applicants
August 12—September 11, 2019

Applicant Review Panel (ARP) reviews applicant qualifications and identifies 120 of the most qualified applicants
September 12, 2019—February 14, 2020

ARP schedules and conducts interviews for 120 of the most qualified applicants
February 18—April 20, 2020

ARP selects 60 of the most qualified applicants
April 21—May 8, 2020

ARP transmits list of 60 applicants. Legislature exercises up to 24 “strikes”
May 15—June 30, 2020

State Auditor randomly selects the first eight commissioners
No later than July 5, 2020

Following random selection of the first eight commissioners, the State Auditor’s Office provides them with the names of remaining candidates. Those first eight commissioners select the remaining six to establish the 14-member commission.

* Dates subject to change depending on the number of tentatively eligible applications.